

Coppice's Reading Roundup

Jan'25

Welcome to the first Reading Newsletter of the new year! This edition includes information about our upcoming Book Fair, some recommended titles and movies that originated as books! Mrs Walklett 😊

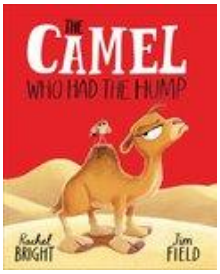

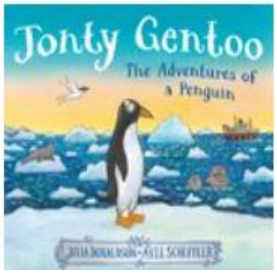

Our wonderful Scholastic Book Fair is BACK! Arriving into school on Monday 3rd February, the book fair will be here until Friday 7th and will open after school until 4.10pm every day.

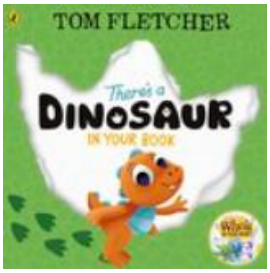

The Fair will consist of 3 bookcases containing over 150 different titles for all age ranges from 2 - 11 upwards. It offers a variety of fiction and non-fiction titles from the best of current children's publishers.

Look out for a letter with further details!

Some of recommended titles you can expect to see at the Fair...

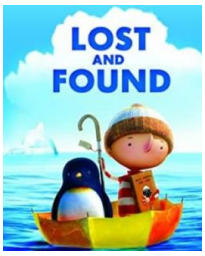

World Book Day is on Thursday 6th March!

Which books would you like to see turned into movies?

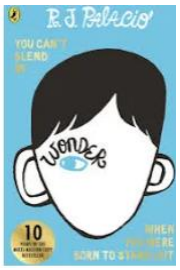

Trailer

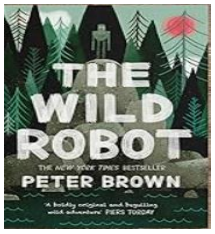

Trailer

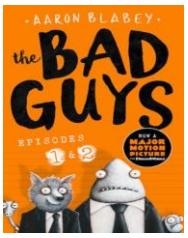

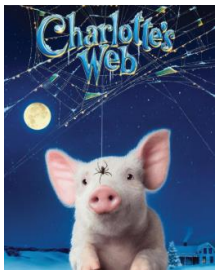

Trailer

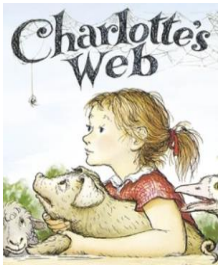

Trailer

Trailer

Trailer

The Wicked story was inspired by the world of...

Year 5 Reading Ambassador Vacancies

Are you passionate about reading?

Would you like to inspire others to share that passion?

We are looking to recruit a team of Year 5 children who will share the love of reading across our school by becoming a Reading Ambassador. Duties include:

-Recommending books

- Leading story sessions

- Sharing ideas for improving reading at Coppice

-Helping at book events such as World Book Day and Book Fairs.

- Spreading the love of reading across our school community.

If you are interested, please see Mrs Walklett for an application form and hand it in to her by Wednesday 29th January. Thank you!