

Coppice's Reading Roundup

September '24

Welcome to the first Reading Roundup of the school year! We have exciting new books in school and hope your children have made the most of our school and class libraries as they have entered their new year groups. Hopefully, they have been telling you a little bit about what they have been reading! Mrs Walklett 😊

We are thrilled with KS1's library – it is so inviting! The children have loved using their new space. A big thank you Charlotte Conway Designs and Ian Smith Group for their incredible donations to our school. A special thank you to everyone who supported our Scholastic Book Fair events last year as the lovely new books you see on some of the shelves were able to be purchased through your support!

Lincoln has enjoyed reading Superbat with his mummy at home and said the story is "really cool!"

Henry has read The Worries with his parents. He said it is about worries that follow you around and how to help that. – he recommends! 😊

Inspired by your books?
Fancy writing your own short story?

We have many creative children at Coppice and some known aspiring authors! BBC's 500 words creative writing competition is a fabulous chance for them to showcase what they can do! We'd welcome any entries to be brought into school to be shared 😊

Check out the BBC website for details.

Competition is OPEN and entries need to be submitted by November 8th. Ages 5+

Events near Us

It is always worth keeping an eye out for local book events! Coming up next month Birmingham Waterstones have some children's events including a Spooky Comic Making Workshop (FREE on 30.10.24) and an opportunity to meet best-selling author Oliver Jeffers (Ticketed Event -13.10.24). More details on their website.
