

Coppice's Reading Roundup

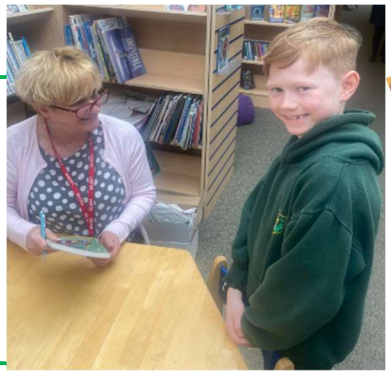

March'24

Earlier this month, we celebrated World Book Day! Thank you to all families who supported with costumes and helping the children choose books to share. We had a wonderful time across the school and this newsletter is all about the highlights! Remember, you can still spend the World Book Day tokens until March 31st. Have a fantastic Easter - we hope you enjoy relaxing and the extra reading time. Miss Fegan 😊

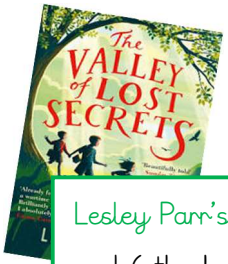

Authors, Authors, everywhere!

Christine Perkins visited Years 2, 3 and 4 to share her brand-new story Jack Flynn Falls into Camelot. We really enjoyed her talk and she was so lovely when signing our books!

Holly Ryan paid a special Virtual Visit to our KS1 pupils. We love story time and it was even more special that it was the author reading her book to us! 😊

Lesley Parr's talk was fascinating showing Years 3, 4, and 6 the background and inspiration behind some of her stories. Year 5 and 6 enjoyed a talk all about Valley of Lost Secrets which she signed copies of afterwards! Thank you to the PTA for funding the visit.

"It was inspirational because we heard her book's journey from ideas to print" - Eliya, Y5.

Book-ish Activities and Costumes!

Acorns transformed into a Reading Café for KS1! We had a great time chatting to our friends about new books we discovered there.

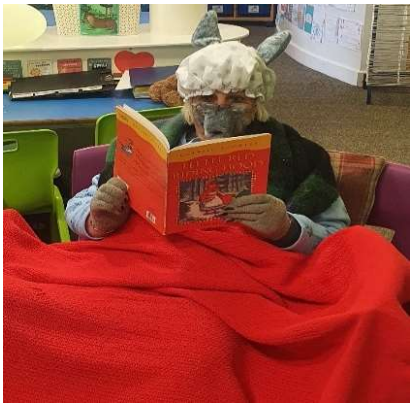

You'll never guess who was waiting for our lovely Year 1s when they returned from lunch ...only the WOLF from Little Red Riding Hood! Squeals could be heard from the floor above but thankfully, Year 1 and Little Red Riding Hood survived to tell the tale and the wolf turned out to be pretty nice afterall.

It was not just authors that paid Coppice a visit on World Book Day – so did the Book Fairies!

They caused quite the excitement as three books were hidden around school for the children to find. They were tied in a special green ribbon. Here is Grace in Year 5 finding one of the books. Where did she find it? Hidden amongst the other books in the library of course!

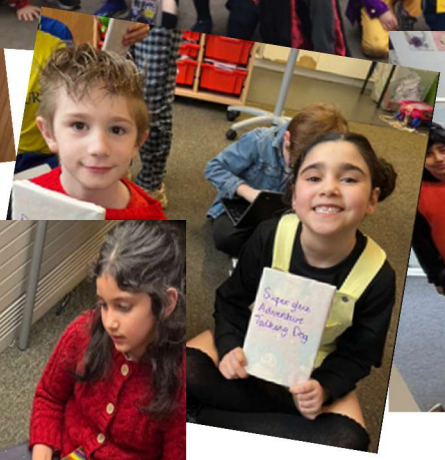

...until next year!
