

Coppice's Reading Roundup

Jan '24

Welcome to the first Reading Newsletter of the new year! This edition includes staff and pupil book recommendations, information about an annual upcoming school event and a reading competition set by our Reading Ambassadors! Miss Fegan.

Our wonderful Scholastic Book Fair is BACK! Arriving into school on Monday 5th February, the book fair will be here until Thursday 8th and will open until 4.15pm – there will be extended opening times during both Parents' Evenings. The Fair will consist of 5 bookcases containing over 200 different titles for all age ranges from 2 – 11 upwards. It offers a variety of fiction and non-fiction titles from the best of current children's publishers.

Look out for a letter with further details and read all about our competition linked to it on the next page!

Staff Recommendation

Miss Cotter recommends The Wild Robot! It is about a robot that becomes lost on an island and has to learn to survive in the wild! Miss Cotter likes it because it is an adventurous and heartwarming read. Suitable for all of KS2.

World Book Day is on Thursday 7th March – we are SO excited!

The Reading Ambassadors have set their first ever competition! Running in both KS1 and KS2, you have the chance to win a £5 voucher to spend at our book fair. All you need to do is recommend a book on one of the Padlet's below!

When you have recommended a book, with your reasons why, your name will be added to a prize draw and two names from both KS1 and KS2 will be drawn in assembly on Monday 5th February.

HOW TO ENTER

1. Choose the Padlet for your Key Stage

2. Read the instructions on the Padlet for what your post should include.

3. Click the plus icon in the bottom right-hand corner of the screen: +

4. For the subject, write the book title. You could upload a picture of the book cover and then write your recommendation! Don't forget to add your name and class.

Speak to your teacher if you need help 😊

Rupert in 2E recommends...

Pirate Diary

This is about a little boy who wants to be a sailor but has been taken by pirates instead! Rupert loves it because it is exciting and full of suspense.

Edward in Year 6 recommends...Percy Jackson.

It is about three young children on a quest to stop Zeus and Poseidon. Edward loves it because he learns more about the Ancient Greeks through an exciting adventure! Year 5, you may especially enjoy this with your current learning about Ancient Greece!
