

Coppice's Reading Roundup

Dec '23

Welcome to the last Coppice's Reading Roundup of the year! As winter has arrived and the holidays are near, you will find many book recommendations to cosy up with and even a quiz to add to your fun and games. In addition to this, some of our pupils have recommended their favourite book and you will learn more about the books we are reading across school. Have a wonderful break and we look forward to hearing what you have read! Miss Fegan.

Books we are currently reading together as a class. Please ask us about them! ☺

RN Nativity	RW Nativity
IL The Snow Bear	IS Room on the Broom
2E A selection of short Christmas stories	2KS The Diary of a Killer Cat
3C The Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane	3GS Planet Omar
4B Vi Spy	4M Wonder
5F Amari and the Night Brothers	5S The Haunting of Aveline Jones
6CF High Rise Mystery When the Sky Falls	6W High Rise Mystery

Quiz! This quiz has been created by our Reading Ambassadors. They want to know... Can you guess the book title from the emojis? Find the answers at the bottom of the letter!

Florence, Etta and Luna from RN recommend... The Everywhere Bear by Julia Donaldson

A bear – the class toy – falls out of a classmate's bag and has its very own adventure! Florence, Etta and Luna love the ending, how adventurous it is and how colourful the illustrations are!

Would you like to feature on the newsletter?

Write down a recommendation that you would like to share with the school and give it to Miss Fegan. You can even send in a picture of you reading the book!
